WASHINGTON, D.C., Congressman John W. Olver (D-1st District) announced that Congress has approximately approximately approximately approximately and Urban Development (FY) 2006 Transportation, Treasury, Housing and Urban Development is the Ranking Member (most senior Democrat) of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Transporthis set of projects entails the stabilization of Rockwell Road and vista pull-off areas in several spots, in Another part of the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by this block of federal funds is to complete the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by the Greylock roadways improvement effort funded by the Greylock roadways improvement effort funds in the Greylock roadways improvement

For more information, contact Robert Mellace, Regional Director, Massachusetts Department of Conse